

To Whom It May Concern,

Liza joined my team as an intern for the fall term. We liked working with Liza so much that we invited her back for the following spring term. During her time in the newsroom, Liza proved herself to be a thoughtful and hardworking designer, as well as a valuable member of the team. Liza has a good intuition for conceptual illustration and uses her drawing skills to create compelling editorial illustrations. She also showed herself to be a talented photo-based illustrator, using both approaches to create dozens of daily turnaround illustrations for nbcnews.com, msnbc.com, and today.com.

Liza's positive qualities extend beyond her design skills. She is highly focused, inquisitive, and hardworking. Her dedication to her work made a significant impact on our stories and team culture. I have no doubt that her work ethic and skills would make her an asset to any team.

I recommend Liza for any professional opportunities. Please do not hesitate to reach out to me if you have any further questions.

Best regards,
